

2020 Outstanding Women Student Awards

Nomination Deadline:
Wednesday, December 18, 2019

The awards are intended to encourage the full participation of women students in all facets of the University experience and in their communities; to support their development of corresponding strengths, both cooperative and competitive; and to celebrate their achievements and contributions, including those not usually recognized by other award programs.

If you would like to nominate a student for this award, or learn more about its history, please visit our website at go.niu.edu/PCSW

Eligibility: Women with a graduation date during the 2019-2020 calendar year (seniors, third-year law students, graduate students)

who will receive a degree in December 2019 or May, August 2020

Submit nominations electronically at go.niu.edu/outstanding-women

Presidential Commission on the Status of Women